The Proper Treatment for a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. BROTHERLY LOVE.

Blest be the tie that binds

Our hearts in Christian love;

The fellowship of kindred minds

Is like to that above.

Before our father's throne

We pour our ardent prayers:

Our fears, our hopes, our aims are on

Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,

Our mutual burdens bear;

And often for each other flows

The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,

It gives us inward pain;

But we shall still be joined in heart,

And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives

Our courage by the way;

While each in expectation lives,

And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil and pain

And sin we shall be free;

And perfect love and friendship reign

Through all eternity.

—John Fawcett.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over 30 years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. N. Craig.

The republicans did as we said they would—nominated our townsman, Hon. Peter Muir McRoberts, for circuit judge. We did not think they would give Mr. Charles A. Hardin, of Harrodsburg, nominee for Commonwealth's attorney, opposition, but they did so in Mr. William Lawson Sumrall, who was defeated by Hon. Geo. G. Gilbert for Congress by over 2,000 majority. Mr. McRoberts is a fine gentleman, popular at home and abroad, but he is on the wrong side and that he will be defeated in November we have not a doubt. It has been written that Hon. W. Conn Bell, of Mercer, will be the next circuit judge of this district and by the eternal he will be. Mr. Sumrall is a graduate of Yale, is a kid glove gentleman and they do say he wipes his hands after shaking hands with the colored brother. Mr. McRoberts is not much of a handshaker and will not have to carry along a towel to keep his hands clean.

W. REED EMBRY, one of the clever editors of the Danville News, has announced for city attorney of his town and he would fill the office most creditably. Henry Jackson, the present incumbent, and another good democrat, is also a candidate. It matters not which gentleman is nominated and elected, Danville people can rest assured that the town's interests will be looked after and carefully managed.

The liar's column of the Louisville Post contains the following: "If we were asked what paper in Kentucky is making the most votes for the republican ticket, we should name the Lexington Democrat. If we were asked what democratic candidate added the greatest strength to the republican ticket, we should name Mr. Hubert Vreland." Dicky Knott is editor of this column and he is in every way fit to make it interesting.

The selection of Hons. P. M. McRoberts for circuit judge and W. Lawson Sumrall for commonwealth's attorney could hardly be improved upon from a personal standpoint, says the Danville Advocate, but the great and prohibitive difficulty they are destined to encounter in their efforts to carry their standard to victory is their politics.

POLITICAL.

Link Dyer, postmaster at New Tazewell, Tenn., is mysteriously missing. Two former Haytlen Ministers under President Sam's administration have been arrested in connection with the financial scandals.

Negotiations have been begun between Cuba and France for a treaty covering the general relations between the two countries.

The republicans of the Sixth judicial district at Owensboro, nominated W. Scott Morrison for circuit judge and

M. L. Heaverin for commonwealth's attorney.

It is likely that Judge George Du Ruelle will be succeeded by George W. Long as chairman of the State republican campaign committee.

John W. Yerkes will come to Kentucky to make a series of speeches in the interest of the candidacy of Morris B. Belknap, republican nominee for governor.

Congressman D. Linn Gooch in an interview at Washington, predicted a clean sweep of the State by the democrats this fall. He says Gov. Beckham will have 25,000 votes to spare.

A Louisville dispatch says: The resignation of Dr. Hugh Manning, chief clerk to Gen. Dan R. Collier, pension agent for Kentucky, will be formally demanded in a few days. While the demand has not yet been made of Dr. Manning, he understands that it will follow and is preparing to defend himself before the civil service commission. Wm. Collier, son of Gen. Collier, will probably succeed Dr. Manning.

The graded school begins Monday. A colored folks' camp meeting is now in full swing here.

Misses Katie Lee Denny and Edith Morrow, of this city, will serve as bridesmaids at the Mason-Haynes marriage, Wednesday and Mr. Lou Haynes, of Hillsboro, Ohio, and Oscar Letcher, of Owensboro, will officiate as groomsmen.

A little boy from Texas, who is visiting here, said to another little chap, who lives in Lincoln: "You must come out to Dallas and see me," when his invited guest replied: "You needn't think I'm goin' to walk way out there in the hot sun."

Mr. Harry Francis, of this county, has gone to St. Louis, where he has secured a position in connection with the world's fair. The Francis family of this section is closely related to the president of the fair association, Mr. Joe Francis being a first cousin of the Missouri statesman.

The Garrard County Teachers' Institute, which has been in session this week, was satisfactorily conducted by Prof. M. A. Casady, of Lexington. The popular superintendent, Mrs. L. L. Walker, was too weak from her recent illness to attend, but was kindly remembered by the teachers with the gift of a handsome cut glass bowl.

The settlement of the Johnson estate accruing from the life policies of the late Wm. Johnson, and which was under the administration of the late J. M. If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by W. N. Craig.

HON. HARVEY HELM spent a few days at the Nicholasville fair and the warm reception given him must have made him feel good all over.
